

Staff Profile: Rebecca Sadler

Position:

Marketing and Sales Manager

Qualifications:

- Currently Studying Bachelor of Business (Marketing) with a minor in Econometrics at Monash University Caulfield
- Electives streams in Accounting and Management

Experience:

Rebecca's first move in the Marketing Industry was to complete a Marketing Internship at the Royal Agricultural Society of Victoria where she worked on the Royal Melbourne Show Promotions Plan implementation. Here she was responsible for promotion of the "Schools' Days' Program" of which numbers increased significantly from the previous year.

The experience she gained during her internship put her in good position to move into a Marketing and Public Relations Co-ordinator role at Switch Business Pty Ltd. In this role Rebecca constructed both a public and members only website, contributed to product design of a complete line of business service products, put into place processes for a new team of staff and worked with the Managing Director to coordinate the marketing activities for the successful launch of this quickly growing business. Rebecca still consults for Switch Business on website and process development.

A move in location lead Rebecca's to her current role with the Quinlan Consulting Team. Rebecca is growing Quinlan Consulting Team's Mentor Programme, assisting the company expand into new ventures and contributes to the overall success of the Quinlan Consulting.

Rebecca performed Bookkeeping and assisted with BAS returns for a small business, Graham Vincent Automotives over the past year.

Rebecca is the current Treasurer and sits on the Event Committee for the Chisholm Ski and Board club at Monash University.

Availability

Rebecca's work focus is predominantly marketing Quinlan Consulting Team. However, she is available through Quinlan Consulting for part time consulting work to clients that wish to increase their sales.